

CAROLINAS DAHLIA SOCIETY

Location: North Carolina Arboretum

Dates of Show: September 15 & 16, 2007

Once again, this year's show turned out remarkably well despite very hot, dry conditions throughout the growing season. To top it off, we got our first substantial rain showers, the Friday afternoon we started staging for the show! Thankfully, we still managed to put on the only dahlia show in the South this year. A special thanks to all who helped make the show a great success! See you all next year.

Show Chairman: Allen Haas
